

defendant, Nellie M. Hough is the ultimate heir to their interest in said property; that the Orphan's Court Records of said Frederick County also show that Nellie M. Hough died sometime between 1961 and 1967 with the only notation in the Estate Docket of said Frederick County being "Carroll Co."; that the other defendants named in this suit, are Joseph Hannah, Zebulon Clay and Joseph Molesworth and the Orphan's Court Records of said County do not give any evidence of their deaths through the present date; that a check of the telephone directory for Frederick County does not show any of said defendant's names listed; that the publication known as "Names In Stone" which purports to list all of the names subscribed to cemetery stones, monuments or markers through 1966 shows that a Joseph Molesworth died January 26, 1896 and that his wife Anne Molesworth predeceased him on August 15, 1822 and both are buried in the New Market Methodist Church Cemetery (see tombstone number 251); that the names of the remaining defendants, Joseph Hannah and Zebulon Clay do not appear in "Names In Stone"; that I believe that since said Joseph Hannah entered the chain of title to said property on September 3, 1864, and the said Zebulon Clay entered the chain of title on November 27, 1867 and if both were of at least the then majority age of twenty-one (21) years the said Joseph Hannah would have to be at least one hundred forty-two (142) years of age and said Zebulon Clay would have to have attained the age of one hundred thirty-nine (139) years if still living and;
